

REQUIREMENTS FOR OPERATING A JUDO CLUB

PURPOSE:

Judo Alberta has endorsed the National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP) as being a fundamental requirement for the right to promote mudansha ranks. This is contained in the By-Laws of the Association under Article V, Section 2. It is expected that a head instructor in a Judo club or a black belt sponsor of the club be certified at level 2 of the NCCP, in order to have a fundamental knowledge of teaching an coaching theory.

POLICY:

1. No Judo club will be permitted to operate under the By-Laws of the Association and no member(s) of the club will be accepted for membership in the Association, unless the head instructor or club sponsor is certified at level 2 of the NCCP
